Attorneys for Plaintiff

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA, WESTERN DIVISION

CURTIS KULIG, an individual;

Plaintiff,

v.

KROTO, INC., D/B/A ICANVAS
ART, an Illinois corporation; and
DOES 1-10 inclusive.

Defendants.

Case No.

COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES,
RESTITUTION AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff Curtis Kulig (“Kulig” or “Plaintiff”) hereby complains against Defendants Kroto, Inc., d/b/a iCanvas Art (“iCanvas”); and Does 1-10 inclusive
(collectively referred to as “Defendants”) as follows.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. Plaintiff brings this action for copyright infringement (17 U.S.C.
Section 101 et seq.); violation of Section 43(a) of Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. Section 1125(a)); and related claims under California law.

2. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over this action and

1 the claims asserted herein, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 1331 (“federal question
 2 jurisdiction”) and 1338(a)-(b) (“patent, copyright, trademark and unfair competition
 3 jurisdiction”) in that this action arises under the laws of the United States and, more
 4 specifically, Acts of Congress relating to patents, copyrights, trademarks, and unfair
 5 competition. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the state law claims
 6 pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 1367(a) (“supplemental jurisdiction”) in that they are 7 so related to the federal law intellectual property claims in the action that they form
 8 part of the same case or controversy under Article III of the United States
 9 Constitution.

10 3. Defendants are subject to the personal jurisdiction of the Court because 11 they do or transact business in, have agents in, or are otherwise found in and have 12 purposely availed themselves of the privilege of doing business in California and in 13 this District, and because the alleged misconduct was directed to California and this 14 district.

15 4. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 16 1391(b)(1)-(3) because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to 17 the claims occurred in this District in that, inter alia, the infringing advertising was 18 used here.

19 THE PARTIES

20 5. Plaintiff Curtis Kulig is a renowned artist, photographer, and illustrator.
 21 Plaintiff’s business affairs are managed in Los Angeles, California.

22 6. Defendant Kroto, Inc. is an Illinois corporation operating under the 23 fictitious business name “iCanvas.” Through its website, iCanvas advertises and 24 sells goods to residents of Los Angeles County, including the infringing goods at 25 issue in this case.

26 7. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names and capacities of the Defendants
 27 sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such 28

1 fictitious names. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to allege the true names and 2 capacities when the same has been ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes,
 3 and thereon alleges, that each fictitiously-named Defendant is responsible in some 4 manner for the occurrences herein alleged, and that Plaintiff's damages as herein
 5 alleged were proximately caused by their conduct.

6 8. Each of the Defendants acted as an agent for each of the other
 7 Defendants in doing the acts alleged and each Defendant ratified and otherwise
 8 adopted the acts and statements performed, made or carried out by the other 9 Defendants so as to make them directly and vicariously liable to the Plaintiff for the 10 conduct complained of herein.

11 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

12 9. Plaintiff is an established contemporary artist, photographer, and 13 illustrator. Of his work, Plaintiff is perhaps best known for his trademark, stylized 14 "Love Me" tag. As shown below, Plaintiff's tag has been displayed throughout the 15 world—on stickers, murals, billboards, and even a swimming pool.

10. In 2011, Plaintiff obtained a registration for his trademark “Love Me” tag—U.S. Trademark Registration No. 4004773—for art prints.

11. In 2013, Plaintiff created an original piece of artwork titled “Love Me, Forever Gold” (the “Work”), featuring his trademark “Love Me” tag in white, on a black background with gold polka dots, and the word “Love” scrawled across the image in red. This Work (shown below, left) is produced and sold as a limited edition art print, each of which is individually numbered, and signed by Mr. Kulig himself. Because of the high demand for Plaintiff’s artwork, each print is validated by a certificate of authenticity.

“Love Me, Forever Gold”

“Love Me I”

12. Without Plaintiff’s knowledge, authorization, or consent, Defendants created a copy of Plaintiff’s Work, featuring the same stylized renditions of Plaintiff’s “Love Me” trademark, in white and red, on a black background with gold polka dots (shown above, right). Defendants are selling mass-produced copies of this unauthorized reproduction—titled “Love Me I”—on their website for substantially less than Plaintiff’s high-quality, signed and certified prints.

13. Defendants have attempted to conceal their wrongful copying by falsely attributing “Love Me I” to “Color Bakery.”

14. Even worse, Defendants are selling three other pieces (also attributed to “Color Bakery”) that incorporate signature elements of Plaintiff’s “Love Me” trademark, including graffiti-style spray paint, and paint drips. As shown below, these additional infringing pieces also incorporate the themes, and color palate of Plaintiff’s Work—namely the combination of red and white graffiti style text on a black background with gold polka dots. That these additional pieces are derivations of Plaintiff’s Work is further shown by their titles: “Love Me II,” “Love Me III,” and “Love Me IV.”

“Love Me II”

“Love Me III”

“Love Me IV”

15. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants’ alleged conduct was, and continues to be, intentional, deliberate, willful, wanton, committed with the intention of injuring Plaintiff, and depriving Plaintiff of Plaintiff’s legal rights; was, and is, despicable conduct that subjects Plaintiff to a cruel and unjust hardship; and was, and continues to be, undertaken with oppression, fraud and malice. Accordingly, Plaintiff is entitled to an award of punitive or exemplary damages.

16. Defendants’ actions have caused, and will continue to cause, damage and irreparable harm to Plaintiff (as described above) and are likely to continue

1 unabated, thereby causing further damage and irreparable harm to Plaintiff, unless
2 preliminarily and permanently enjoined and restrained by the Court.

3 17. Defendants infringed as described above, and used copies of Plaintiff's
4 pseudonym and signature, in interstate commerce.

5 First Claim For Relief For Copyright Infringement
6 (Against All Defendants)

7 18. Plaintiff incorporates herein by this reference paragraphs 1 through 17
8 as if set forth in full in this cause of action.

9 19. Plaintiff's graphic expression, as shown in the image above, is an 10 original work of authorship and constitutes copyrightable subject matter under the 11 laws of the United States. The image was fixed in a tangible medium of expression, 12 as described above. An application for a federal registration of the artwork has been 13 filed with the Register of Copyrights, dated March 30, 2017; and the deposit,
14 application, and fee required for registration have been delivered to the Copyright
15 Office in proper form. The case number associated with the application is 1-16 4744524121.

17 20. At all times since the creation of the graphic expression, Plaintiff has 18 complied with all aspects of the Copyright Acts of 1909 and 1976 and all other laws 19 governing copyright, and secured the exclusive rights and privileges in and to the 20 graphic expression. Plaintiff is the sole owner of all rights, title, and interest in and 21 to the copyright in the graphic expression.

22 21. Subsequent to Plaintiff's creation of the graphic expression and (on 23 information and belief) with full knowledge of the rights of Plaintiff, Defendants 24 infringed Plaintiff's copyright by copying and reproducing, as described above, the 25 artwork and selling such copied images, and derivative works.

26 22. All of Defendants' acts were performed without the permission, license
27 or consent of Plaintiff.
28

1 23. By reason of Defendants' acts of copyright infringement as alleged 2 herein, Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer substantial damage to his 3 businesses in the form of diversion of trade, loss of profits, and a diminishment in 4 the value of Plaintiff's works, rights, and reputation, in part as described above, all
5 in amounts that are not yet ascertainable but not less than the jurisdictional
6 minimum of this court.

7 24. By reason of its infringement of Plaintiff's copyright as alleged herein,
8 Defendants are liable to Plaintiff for the actual damages incurred by Plaintiff as a
9 result of the infringement, and for any profits of Defendants directly or indirectly
10 attributable to such infringement.

11 25. Defendants' copying was willful, as alleged above.

12 Second Claim For Relief For Falsification, Removal and Alteration of 13 Copyright Management Information in Violation of 17 U.S.C. § 1202
14 (Against All Defendants)

15 26. Plaintiff incorporates herein by this reference paragraphs 1 through 25
16 as if set forth in full in this cause of action.

17 27. The Work contained copyright management information protected
18 under 17 U.S.C. § 1202(b), including Plaintiff's signature, and other source 19 identifying elements.

20 28. Defendants intentionally removed and/or altered the copyright
21 management information contained in the Work with the intent to induce, enable,
22 facilitate, or conceal an infringement of Plaintiff's rights under the Copyright Act.
23 On the iCanvas.com website, Defendants have replaced such information with false,
24 altered, and inaccurate copyright management information, which falsely identifies 25 one or more Defendants, or another person or entity, that has no copyright
26 ownership interest as the owner of copyright in the Work.

27 29. Defendants' conduct constitutes a violation of 17 U.S.C. § 1202(a), and 28

1 1202(b).

2 30. Defendants' falsification, removal and/or alteration of that copyright
3 management information was done without Plaintiff's knowledge or authorization.

4 31. Defendants' falsification of said copyright management information
5 was done by Defendants intentionally, knowingly, and with the intent to induce,
6 enable, facilitate, or conceal Defendants' infringement of Plaintiff's copyright in the 7 Work. Defendants also knew, or had reason to know, that such removal and/or 8 alteration of copyright management information would induce, enable, facilitate, or 9 conceal Defendants' infringement of Plaintiff's copyright in the Work.

10 32. Plaintiff has sustained significant injury and monetary damages as a 11 result of Defendants' wrongful acts as hereinabove alleged, and as a result of being 12 involuntarily associated with Defendants. Plaintiff is at present unable to ascertain 13 the full extent of the monetary damages Plaintiff has suffered by reason of said acts.
14 In order to determine the full extent of such damages, including such profits of 15 Defendants as may be recoverable under 17 U.S.C. § 1203, Plaintiff will require an 16 accounting from each Defendant of all monies generated from their wrongful 17 falsification, removal and alteration of copyright management information.

18 33. In the alternative, Plaintiff may elect to recover statutory damages
19 pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 1203(c)(3) in a sum of not more than $25,000 from each 20 Defendant for each violation of 17 U.S.C. § 1202.

21 Third Claim for Relief for Unfair Competition Under Section 43(a) of 22 The Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. § 1125(a))
23 (Against All Defendants)

24 34. Plaintiff incorporates herein by this reference paragraphs 1 through 33
25 as if set forth in full in this cause of action.

26 35. The Work contains signature elements of Plaintiff's artwork. Art world
27 consumers and insiders, as well as the general public, have come to recognize 28

1 Plaintiff's signature elements as being associated with Plaintiff.

2 36. Included within the "signature elements" are the stylized "LOVE ME"
3 text, as well as Plaintiff's signature imagery. Plaintiff has spent substantial resources
4 successfully establishing his work and name in the minds of consumers as a high 5 quality product.

6 37. The goodwill and reputation associated with the "signature elements"
7 of Plaintiff's work has continuously grown throughout the general public, and are 8 now well known throughout the United States and the State of California as a source
9 of origin for Plaintiff's artistic product.

10 38. The "signature elements" of Plaintiff's work are strong, fanciful, non-11 functional, and distinctive; and inherently distinctive. Through Plaintiff's efforts in 12 exhibiting his work, these "signature elements" have become distinctive of his 13 artwork, and have acquired secondary meaning among relevant consumers and the 14 public generally.

15 39. As alleged above, Defendants misappropriated the "signature elements"
16 of Plaintiff's work by reproducing and selling unauthorized copies of the Work, and 17 derivative works. Defendants' actions were designed to create, and do create the 18 false and deceptive commercial impression that Defendants' products are associated 19 with Plaintiff.

20 40. The use by Defendants of Plaintiff's work, or any element thereof is 21 likely to cause confusion or mistake or deception of purchasers as to the source of 22 the goods.

23 41. Customers and potential purchasers are likely to be attracted to 24 Defendants' products, believing there to be association with Plaintiff, thereby
25 resulting in consumer confusion. Defendants' conduct will damage Plaintiff's ability
26 to enjoy, maintain and exploit his hard-won brand-recognition and status as a street
27 art leader.

28

1 42. Although he maintains the highest standards of quality, Plaintiff has no
2 control over the type or quality of the goods provided by Defendants. Goods of low
3 quality, if associated with Plaintiff, damage his reputation. Further, such loss of 4 goodwill with respect to customers and retailers will cause decreased revenues and 5 decreased profits for Plaintiff.

6 43. In addition, Defendants' unauthorized use harms the distinctiveness of 7 Plaintiff's Work, and the "signature elements" thereof, by associating it with mass-
8 market advertising, thereby diminishing its ability to connote a single source of 9 Plaintiff's artwork.

10 44. By Defendants' unlicensed, unconsented to, and otherwise
11 unauthorized use of the graphical, thematic, and other signature source-identifying 12 elements of Plaintiff's work, Defendants have wrongfully appropriated for 13 themselves business and goodwill value that properly belongs to Plaintiff, and that 14 Plaintiff has invested time, money, and energy in developing.

15 45. Defendants have intentionally traded, infringed upon, and diluted the 16 value of Plaintiff's work, and the "signature elements" thereof, in general; and 17 misrepresented and created confusion regarding Plaintiff's association with 18 Defendants.

19 46. By virtue of Defendants' acts hereinabove described, Defendants have 20 committed, and are continuing to commit, unlawful, unfair, and fraudulent business
21 acts in violation of, inter alia, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a).

22 47. By reason of Defendants' acts of unfair competition as alleged herein,
23 Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer substantial damage to his business 24 in the form of diversion of trade, loss of profits, and a dilution in the value of his 25 rights and reputation, all in amounts which are not yet ascertainable but which are 26 estimated to be not less than the jurisdictional minimum of this court.

27 48. Defendants' acts of unfair competition in violation of 15 U.S.C. §
28

1 1125(a) have caused, and will continue to cause, damage and irreparable harm to 2 Plaintiff (as described above) and are likely to continue unabated, thereby causing 3 further damage and irreparable harm to Plaintiff, and to the goodwill associated with 4 the valuable and well-known “signature elements” of Plaintiff’s work, and 5 Plaintiff’s business relationships, unless preliminarily and permanently enjoined and 6 restrained by the Court.

7 49. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law and will suffer irreparable
8 injury if Defendants are allowed to continue to wrongfully continue the conduct 9 herein described.

10 50. In committing these acts of unfair competition, Defendants acted
11 willfully, wantonly, and recklessly; and with conscious disregard for Plaintiff’s
12 rights. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to punitive damages.

13 Fourth Claim for Trademark Infringement
14 (Against All Defendants)

15 51. Plaintiff incorporates herein by this reference paragraphs 1 through 50
16 as if set forth in full in this cause of action.

17 52. Defendants’ actions, as set forth above constitute infringement of a 18 registered trademark in violation of 15 U.S.C. §1114, insofar as Defendants have 19 knowingly used Plaintiff’s trademark “Love Me” design in promoting and selling
20 goods that are similar in nature to Plaintiff’s, thereby falsely designating the source
21 of the origin of such goods and raising of likelihood of confusion among the public
22 as to the source of Defendants’ goods.

23 53. Plaintiff has been damaged by Defendant’s infringement of the “Love 24 Me” trademark by reason of the likelihood that potential customers have been 25 confused as to the source of Defendants’ goods and the relationship of those goods
26 to Plaintiff.

27 54. Defendants have profited from their infringing use of the “Love Me”
28

1 trademark.

2 55. By reason of Defendants' actions alleged herein, Plaintiff has suffered
3 damage to its goodwill and the loss of sales and profits that it would have received
4 but for Defendants' wrongful use of the "Love Me" trademark.

5 56. On information and belief, Defendants' infringing use of the "Love
6 Me" trademark is willful and done without regard to Plaintiff's established 7 trademark rights.

8 Fifth Claim for Relief for Unfair Competition Under 9 California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.
10 (Against All Defendants)

11 57. Plaintiff incorporates herein by this reference paragraphs 1 through 56
12 as if set forth in full in this cause of action.

13 58. Defendants, by means of the conduct above, have engaged in, and are 14 engaging in, unlawful, unfair, fraudulent and deceptive business practices under 15 California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq. These acts and practices
16 undertaken by Defendants violate California Business & Professions Code § 17200
17 in that they are—as described above—unfair, fraudulent, and/or unlawful.
18 Specifically, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, such acts and practices
19 constitute violations of the Lanham Act, and are and were fraudulent in that: (a)
20 Defendants seek to deceive consumers regarding the source, quality and origin of 21 Defendants' goods and Defendants' association with Plaintiff and (b) the general
22 public and trade is likely to be confused regarding the business relationship between 23 Plaintiff and Defendants. Further, without limiting the generality of the foregoing,
24 the harm to Plaintiff and to members of the general public far outweighs the utility 25 of Defendants' practices and, consequently, Defendants' practices constitute an 26 unfair business act or practice within the meaning of Business and Professions Code 27 § 17200.

28

1 59. Plaintiff has sustained, and will continue to sustain, serious and
2 irreparable injury to their businesses and reputations, as a direct and proximate
3 result of Defendants' conduct (as described above). Unless Defendants are enjoined
4 by this Court, there is a substantial possibility that they will continue to engage in 5 such unlawful, unfair, and deceptive business practices, for which Plaintiff is 6 without an adequate remedy at law. Accordingly, Plaintiff is entitled to a 7 preliminary injunction and permanent injunction against Defendants and their 8 officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives, affiliates, subsidiaries, 9 distributors, and all persons acting in concert with them, prohibiting them from 10 engaging in further unlawful, unfair and/or fraudulent business practices.

11 60. As a direct result of Defendants' unlawful, unfair, fraudulent, and 12 deceptive business practices, Defendants have received, and continue to receive,
13 income and profits that they would not have earned but for their unlawful, unfair,
14 and deceptive conduct and Plaintiff is entitled to disgorgement of such funds
15 wrongfully obtained.

16 61. By reason of Defendants' acts of unfair competition as alleged herein,
17 Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer substantial damage to Plaintiff's
18 business in the form of diversion of trade, loss of profits, and a dilution in the value 19 of their rights and reputation, all in amounts which are not yet ascertainable but 20 which are estimated to be not less than the jurisdictional minimum of this court.

21 62. Plaintiff is also entitled under the provisions of Business and 22 Professions Code §17208 to an injunction prohibiting Defendants, and each of them,
23 from engaging in any act, directly or indirectly, which constitute unlawful, unfair,
24 and deceptive business practices.

25 63. In committing these acts of unfair competition, Defendants acted
26 willfully, wantonly, and recklessly; and with conscious disregard for Plaintiff's
27 rights. Plaintiffs are therefore entitled to punitive damages.

64. Defendants' conduct, if allowed to proceed and continue and/or let stand, will cause irreparable damage to Plaintiff's valuable business relationships and consumer relations and will require Plaintiff to undertake efforts to mitigate damage to such relations, all to Plaintiff's detriment. Further, such mitigation costs will require substantial time, effort, and expenditures by Plaintiff, all to Plaintiff's detriment.

Sixth Claim for Relief for Unfair Competition Under California Common Law
(Against All Defendants)

65. Plaintiff incorporates herein by this reference paragraphs 1 through 64 as if set forth in full in this cause of action.

66. The above-described conduct of Defendants constitutes unfair competition under the common law of the State of California.

67. As a result of the actions of Defendants, Plaintiff has been damaged in an amount to be proven at trial.

PRAYER

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays judgment against Defendants as follows:

1. That Plaintiff is awarded all damages, including future damages, that Plaintiff has sustained, or will sustain, as a result of the acts complained of herein, subject to proof at trial;

2. That Plaintiff is awarded his costs, attorneys' fees and expenses in this action;

3. That Plaintiff is awarded pre-judgment interest;

4. For an order permanently enjoining Defendants and their employees, agents, servants, attorneys, representatives, successors, and assigns, and any and all persons in active concert or participation with any of them, from engaging in the misconduct referenced herein;

5. That Defendants be ordered to immediately recall and remove any and all infringing goods from the marketplace; and any and all remaining locations, physical or digital;

6. That Defendants be ordered to file with this Court and serve upon Plaintiffs' counsel within thirty (30) days after services of the judgment demanded herein, a written report submitted under oath setting forth in detail the manner in which they have complied with the judgment;

7. That Defendants be adjudged to have engaged in unlawful, unfair and/or fraudulent business practices and unfair competition in violation of California Business and Profession Code §§ 17200 et seq.;

8. For disgorgement of all proceeds, and restitution of the moneys wrongfully received by Defendants as the result of their wrongful conduct, including copyright and trademark infringement, and unfair competition;

9. For punitive damages in an amount sufficient to deter Defendants, and each of them, from their wrongful conduct; and

10. For further relief, as the Court may deem appropriate.
